IN WINDY CITY

Twenty-Eight Hundred
New Recruits to the Strikers Marched
Out Today.

NO MORE "SINKERS"

Eight Hundred Employes of Kohlsat's Restaurants Take Matters in Their Own Hands.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.)
Chicago, Ill., May 18.—Twenty-eight hundred workers were added to the ranks of the unemployed this morning when eight hundred employes of the Kohlsat's restaurants and two thousand blacksmith helpers went out.

Want Increase.
The two thousand blacksmith helpers want a fifteen per cent. increase and by their action have practically paralyzed the metal trade shops where they were working. Other unions will join with them soon.

Without "Sinkers"
As a result of the strike at Kohlsat's
the downtown restaurants are without their customary supply of "sinkers", pies and bread. Trouble is expected if girls are put in the strikers' places as has been planned.

STRIKE RIOTS
IN CONNECTICUT

Thirty-Five Persons Are Hurt When
Company Tries To Run Cars.

Bridgeport, Conn., May 18.—Thirty
two persons were injured here Sunday
in a riot incident to the street car strike. The sheriff blames Mayor Mulvihill for his open sympathy with the strikers. He threatens to supersede the mayor in authority and says that another such outbreak will make the calling out of the state troops inevitable.

Six trolley cars were started on the Barnum and State street lines. The cars were manned by twenty of the 130 strike breakers brought to this city by the trolley company. When the first car had completed its third round trip and was in front of the Wheeler & Wilson factory, where a crowd of at least 1,000 persons had gathered, a bombardment of stones began.

Clash of Authority.
Deputy Sheriffs Hendree and Plumb, who were riding on the car, plunged into the crowd to arrest a man
whom they had seen throwing a stone.
He was seized and with considerable difficulty dragged fifty feet to the car. The stone-thrower was a big fellow and struggled so fiercely that a policeman went to the assistance of the sheriffs. Mayor Mulvihill rushed up to the policeman and ordered him
to take his hands off the prisoner.
During the argument the stone thrower wrenched himself free and dashed away. In the meantime stones were flying in a shower and one of them
struck Mayor Mulvihill on the head, bruising it badly.

Deputies Fire Guns.
The two deputies jumped on the car and ordered the motorman to proceed to the car sheds, a quarter of a mile distant. The bombardment did not abate and the crowds on the streets were so dense that the motom-an had to go slowly. The stone-throwing soon became so furious that the sheriffs drew their revolvers and fired five shots in the air. This caused the bombardment to let up a little and the car reached the barns and was run inside. The other five cars followed the first car.

Mob Throws Stones.
When the last car had passed within the doors there was a crowd of 4,000 people gathered in a vacant lot opposite and violence once more broke loose. Brickbats, stones and other missiles were hurled at the barns.
Mayor Mulvihill saw that the sergeant and nine policemen stationed at the car barns were entirely unable to cope with the mob and he sent for Chief Coffin of the fire department.
The latter ordered out an engine company with a steamer and a line of hose. Soon a stream was being played on the mob, which slowly fell back before the water. One of the strike breakers was assisting the firemen in holding the hose when a brick struck him on the head and knocked him senseless.

Strike Breakers Suffer.
It is known that not a man of the twelve who were on the six cars escaped injury of some kind. Every one of them as they stood on the platform of their cars while going into the barns was seen to be bleeding profusely from the head and face. In addition to the trolley men injured Roadmaster Davis of the trolley company was severely hurt by a stone which struck him on the head.

Cattle in Argentine.
The number of cattle in Argentine is estimated at 25,000,000.

PRESIDENT REBUKES
IMPUDENT SCHOOLBOY

Yosemite Lad Hails the Executive
With "Hello, Teddy!" and Receives Severe Reprimand.

Yosemite, Cal., May 18.—President Roosevelt administered a stern rebuke to a small boy who spoke impudently to him. As he rode horseback down the street of Yosemite village the boy called out, "Hello, Teddy!" The president stopped his horse and a frown darkened his face. He rode up to the boy, the dignity of the president gone and in its place the severity of the father. He gave the youngster a short lecture on manners that he will never forget.

Within the shadows of old El Capitan, lulled by the spirit of Pohono,
the Indian name for the bridal veil,
almost within the spray of the falls,
but warmed by a rousing campfire,
President Roosevelt rested Sunday night. It had been a hard day for him. Since early morning he had been in the saddle viewing and admiring some of the grandest scenery
in the world.

WOMAN IS SLAIN WITH A CLUB

Negro Is Blamed for Murder of Mrs.
Hauck Stewart in Indiana.

Terre, Haute, Ind., May 18.—Mrs.
Hauck Stewart was found murdered
when her husband returned home from work. The furniture showed that she had fought her assailants until a blow with a club crushed her skull.
Her body was badly bruised and mangled. It is believed the murderer is a negro and searching parties determined on a lynching are trying to capture him. A bloody club about four feet long was found about 200 yards from the Stewart home. A negro was put off a train near Lena a few hours before the murder for stealing a ride and it is thought he is responsible for the crime. Descriptions of the negro have been sent all over Putnam county.

family, were injured in a runaway accident.

ter general to recommend to congress
that the rural free delivery service
be placed under the contract system.

Three of the worshippers were badly

JEWS LEAVING
RUSSIA FAST

In Two Sections of the Country, There Is a Perfect Exodus
Starting.

TRAINS CROWDED

Leave Goods on Deposit in the Banks as Security for Their Debts.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.)
London, May 18.—The Evening
Star tonight, on most reliable authority, reports that the whole of the northwest and southwest Russia are in a state of excitement owing to the exodus of the Jews from these localities.

Leaving in Haste
The Jews all over Russia are showing great haste to get out of the country. Every train is crowded and whole families are leaving with all they possess. The banks are filled with goods placed there as security for old debts.

Police Power
It is learned that many young Jews
of Kiev started to establish a defense society but that the police hampered them while they allow the revolutionary society to issue pamphlets against the Jews and protect them.

MANY PICNICS OF
FRATERNAL ORDERS

Secret Societies Are Planning for Summer Outings—L. O. O. F.
and U. C. T.

As the balmy summer days draw near the picnic fever strikes nearly every man who wears one or more of the mysterious emblems in his coat lapel or on his waistcoat which denote membership in a fraternal order. Two more orders have been added to the list of those which are looking forward to an annual picnic,
—the "greatest ever."

At their next meetings the two lodges of the Independent Order of U. C. T.
Fellows will probably take action endorsing attendance at the Northern Illinois and Southern Wisconsin picnic of their order which will be held at Rockford on Thursday June 11.
A 1-1 league ball game, river excusions, and speechifying at Harlem
park will fill the day.

The United Commercial Travelers
decided at their Saturday night gathering to attend, as nearly en masse
as possible, the annual convention and picnic of their order, which will take place at Milwaukee on the two days succeeding the Odd Fellows' outing. The dates are Friday and Saturday, June 12 and 13. Special cars from this city will take the members and their wives. The order now numbers 115 members in this city.

One Million Pike Are Placed in Pool
at Wabash, Ind.

Wabash, Ind., May 18.—One million
walleye pike have been placed in Lake Manitowish by the United States fish commission. The lake, formerly famous for its game fish, has lately been pretty well fished out, and is now to be thoroughly restocked. Next put in the same lake by the commission.

MAN AND GIRL TAKE POISON

Carriage-maker Leaves a Widow and
Two-weeks-old Babe.

Connorsville, Ind., May 18.—Van Moore, 33 years of age, a carriage-maker, went walking with Miss Clara Sherwood, aged 23 years and the daughter of John Sherwood, a saloon-keeper of this city. Miss Sherwood was found by some boys in a grove,
suffering from the effects of carbolic acid poisoning. She said they had taken poison together and told the boys where Moore could be found dead. The woman was removed to her home and will live. Moore leaves a widow and a 2-weeks-old baby.

Moore, a jeweler of Chicago.

utes and 48 seconds. Jimmy Michael of Wales was third, in 1 hour 30 min-

Madrid the Scene of an Awful Horror at a
Sunday Carnival
Event.

TWELVE ARE DEAD

Others Were Thrown Into
the Bull Ring Where
They Were Badly
Gored.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.)
Madrid, May 18.—During the Sunday bull fights here yesterday the seats about the arena broke and many persons and young children were thrown into the bull ring where they were gored and killed by the
in infuriated bull on exhibition.

Many Killed
The scene was one of the wildest confusion. The frightened audience struggled and fought to get out of the place and crowded many over the rail into the ring where the maddened bull tossed them about. Twelve were killed and fifty injured.

Gala Day
Sunday is the gala day for all
Spaniards and the bull fight of yes-

RIO GRANDE ROAD
HAS A BAD WRECK

Cars Were Thrown Into
the River.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.)
Denver, May 18.—The Denver and Rio Grande through passenger was wrecked near Palisade this morning by running into a boulder which had

Indiana Man Has Spent Five Years in Prison for Drunkenness.

Wabash, Ind., May 18.—Peter Evans
of Wabash has been arrested and fined for the one hundred and seventy-seventh time. Evans is well advanced in years and is a chronic inebriate, whose repeated efforts to reform have failed, and who has reconciled himself to enslavement to the rum demon for the remainder of his life. Estimating that he has served an average of ten days for each sentence, he has spent nearly five years in jail in the last twenty years.

DROUTH ALARMS PORTO RICO

ing From Disease.

San Juan, Porto Rico, May 18.—

ing an alarming drouth in Porto Rico.
The orange blossoms are dropping, the new cane crop has been seriously delayed and cattle are suffering from a disease due to lack of food and water.
There have been many small whirl-
winds and minor crops are scarce, cof-

HE DOESN'T LIKE TO KILL MEN

Rather Than Take Part in Any More Executions Warden Resigns.

Columbus, O., May 18.—S. H. Darby has resigned the office of warden of the Ohio penitentiary and says in explanation of his action: "The fact that I have had to move the lever in electrocuting criminals has worried me more than I can stand and I resolved some time ago that I would never take part in another electrocution." Warden Darby has officiated at three electrocutions and the pros-hastened his resignation. E. A. Hershey of Akron will succeed him.

THREE IN CHURCH

Subtle Fluid Tears Clothing From Man and Two Women During the Services.

Rockton, Ill., May 18.—While sitting in pews in the Methodist church at Rockton listening to a sermon three persons were struck by lightning, but escaped death. They are Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Pollock and Mrs. Edward Shottliff. There was a wild scene in the church when the lightning flashed.
It was believed that Mrs. Shottliff had been killed, but she was revived by a doctor. The clothing of all the injured was torn to shreds by the bolt
and the victims were badly burned.
The church was not damaged. The lightning entered by way of a chand-deller. While the injuries of the victims are severe the physicians think they will survive.

LIVES INFANT BEDBUG POISON

One Woman Accuses Another of Killing Babe in Their Care.

Lancaster, Pa., May 18.—Virginia Thomas and Belle Berry have been put in jail on the charge of having murdered Jesse M. Richardson, an infant. The baby had been placed in the charge of the Thomas woman by its parents. The accused women lived together. It is alleged that Belle Berry had frequently shown her ill will for the child. They occupied the same room and in the morning the baby was found dead, evidently poisoned.
When arraigned Virginia Thomas declared that Belle Berry gave the baby bedbug poison. A nearly empty bottle of this poison, containing corrosive sublimite and carbolic acid, was found in the room.

MAN'S CORPSE IN BOX IN RIVER

Fishermen Find Disemboweled Corpse
That May Reveal a Murder.

Wabash, Ind., May 18.—While fishing in the Tippecanoe river Clyde Kyle and Frank Miller found the mutilated and partly naked body of a man. The trunk and the legs were in a wooden box, from which part of the cover had been washed away. The head and the arms were found in the water near the box. The box was in shallow water near the shore at a secluded place north of Warsaw. No one has been able to identify the body. The police and coroner, who are working on the case, are inclined to think the body was sent to Warsaw from some big city and hastily placed in the river.

BLIZZARD RAGES IN THE WEST

Snowstorm is General Over Montana
and Stock Suffers.

Butte, Mont., May 18.—A general
snowstorm prevails throughout Montana. In the eastern sections of the state the snow is wet and unless the temperature should fall the storm will benefit the crops and the range. In the north, however, a blizzard has been raging and the Great Northern railway has great difficulty in the operation of its trains. Stock is suffering and considerable loss among sheep
is threatened.

SURVIVOR STORY
WAS A BIG FAKE

Jacob Friedman, Who Posed as a Survivor of Kischineff, Was Never There.

HE GOT SYMPATHY

His Real Name is Kuscherwitzsky—Rich New York Jews Gave Him Money.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.)
New York, May 18.—Thousands of Jews throughout the city who aided Jacob Friedman, supposed to be first Jewish refugee from Kischineff to land in America, are today mourning
the loss of their money having found he is a fake.

Never Saw Kischineff
Friedman's real name is Jacob Kuscherwitzsky and he was never in Kischineff in his life. Just how much money he received is not known but considerable was subscribed and ready for him to aid the sufferers.

Clever Talker
Kuscherwitzsky landed in New York last Thursday and told a weird tale of the suffering of the Jewish Russians, the part he played in the massacres and how he escaped. His story was believed by all the New York Jews.

MONEY KINGS
PART COMPANY

Widener and Elkins Have Severed
Their Financial Relations.

(Special by Scripps-McLae.) Philadelphia, Pa., May 18.—After many years of close association in huge financial deals and a personal friendship which has resulted in intermarriage between their families, P.
A. B. Widener and William L. Elkins have apparently reached the parting of the ways. A breach in the bond between them, which began last winter over a bill in the legislature, has widened, and now Widener has sailed for Europe, leaving his old-time friend and financial associate behind him.

It has been their almost invariable
custom in former years to journey abroad together, and the present failure gives point to the stories of their break already circulated. Just how wide the divergence is and what effect it will have on the future financial relations of the two capitalists is matter of interesting speculation among financial men.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS CLOSED THEIR ANNUAL MEETING SUNDAY

ELECTED OFFICERS AND REVIEWED YEAR'S WORK.

SPECIAL SERVICES WERE HELD

Superintendent Hutton Spoke Last Evening, at the Congregational Church.

When the session of the annual convention of the Southern Wisconsin Christian Endeavor union came to a close last evening it was with the firm conviction on the part of all of the delegates and visitors that the services had been of power and interest. The attendance was large throughout, and there was but few schools in the union which were not represented by at least one delegate. In the election of officers, which occurred at the business meeting Saturday night, re-statement was the general rule. Will M. Cowles retaining his place as president, and the other officers in their old places. The officers for the coming year will be: President, Will M. Cowles, Watervale; Vice-president, Ray Good, Milton; Secretary, Grace Cox, Whitewater; Treasurer, Sara Venable, Janesville.

Whitewater Takes First Place. Whitewater took the lion's share of the honors in the prize awards. In both the Junior and Intermediate departments the banners for greatest improvement during the past year went to the Congregational church of Whitewater. In the Junior contest the Congregational church of Edgerton was very close.

Saturday evening's address, delivered by President Daland of Milton college was one of the most eloquent of the convention.

The convention next year will be held at Whitewater.

The total numbers of delegates present from each department was as follows: Seniors, 77; Juniors, 23; Intermediates, 10.

CLOSING SERMONS OF THE MEETING

Sup't Hutton and W. U. Carrier Talked at the Congregational Church Last Night.

The last service and meeting of the fifteenth annual Christian Endeavor union of Southern Wisconsin was held at the Congregational church Sunday evening, at 7:30. At seven in the evening there was a short devotional service and greetings in the church parlors.

By seven-thirty almost every seat in the main church was taken. A mixed choir of fourteen voices furnished the music. After the opening hymn there was a prayer by Rev. Mr. Denison, the evening lesson was then read and Mr. Cowles introduced the first speaker, Superintendent A. J. Hutton of Waukesha.

Hutton's Talk. Mr. Hutton took for his subject the fitting of ourselves for a life of Christian endeavor. He showed how appropriate the name was. That Christian Endeavor presupposes self-control. "Self-control has more than a negative meaning," said the speaker. "It is not only what not to do, but what to do."

Mr. Hutton further showed how conscience alone would not determine right and wrong, but that the moral judgment must be exercised and trained. Lessons must be received from actual life. Young people must also look to history to see what is right. Mr. Hutton gave a number of instances, in Biblical history and the experiences of great men who did what was right at critical times. To be near to the true Christian endeavor, one must lead a thoughtful, strenuous life.

His Text. "Now, therefore, perform the doing of it," was what Mr. Hutton uttered of it. It was what Mr. Hutton took for his text and he emphasized the meaning of the words. "Strength to resist and strength to do," came only from repeated practice," said the speaker, and "a good conscience, with moral purpose, self-control and a strong will form character." Mr. Hutton told how vitally important are the triumphs and defeats that all young people experience. In closing the speaker explained what service in Christian endeavor meant and what its purpose was.

Mr. Carrier. Then followed the hymn, O Paradise, O Paradise, by the choir, after which Mr. W. O. Carrier, of Chicago, delivered his address. Mr. Carrier was for four years state president of the Christian Endeavor.

He said he knew the audience would be patient with him for the program for the evening now included only two addresses, while as the meetings were previously planned there was to have been four sermons. Mr. Carrier took for his text: Give and it shall be given unto you. He told what the field of Christian Endeavor meant and what it had to do with. That the Christian Endeavor union are Christians to do the will of God and plan and principles of the infinite leader Christ. Mr. Carrier told of many people who had given up their lives to this Christian work and how they had been benefited thereby.

The service closed with the singing of a hymn in which all took part.

MAKES REPORT ON YEAR'S WORK

President Will Cowles, of Whitewater, Tells of the Work Done in the Past.

At the Saturday evening meeting of the Christian Endeavor convention President Will M. Cowles, of Whitewater, delivered his report of the condition of the societies in the Southern Wisconsin Union. It is given below:

"It is with great pleasure that I can report for this year a gain of six Senior societies, a gain of 419 in membership and a gain of $86.42 for missions and $11.78 for support of the District work.

"The Juniors have lost four societies although two new ones have been organized during the year. The present membership is 376 gifts to missions $76.67 and to District work $10. The Intermediate societies number three with a membership of 67. Given to missions $49.00 to District work, $15.50.

Some Disadvantages. We have been greatly hindered in our year's work because we have had no Junior Missionary or Field Superintendents.

"I have been able to visit Monroe and Lima Center from the result of which we are in union with 3 more denominations the Evangelical, Lutheran, United Brethren and Christian. We also have a Senior in the Whitewater Baptist church.

A Better Plan. "It would be very much easier for the District officers and the committees in making arrangements for our convention if the place and date were known at the time of their election. I therefore recommend that invitations be extended to the convention at this and all succeeding sessions the same to be accepted by vote of the convention.

"It also seems that some basis of representation to the conventions should be made. Therefore I recommend that by a vote of this convention each Senior, Intermediate and Junior society be represented by one delegate for each twenty members or fraction thereof.

"At our first board meeting the fact that no direct recognition was given to the Intermediate and Juniors of our district was brought out, but that every thing was done through their superintendents. This it seems to us was wrong for two reasons:

Two Reasons. "1st. Each superintendent has all he ought to do in attending to the regular correspondence of the year and the arrangements of their respective rallies at the convention.

"2nd. All money should go through the hands of the District Treasurer. Therefore I recommend that the resolution be passed asking these societies to remit all money for our district to its treasurer.

"The system we been using for raising funds is not as good or as satisfactory as it should be. Therefore, I recommend that the system used this year be adopted by this convention for its future use. It will cover all expenses needed and would be far more just and equitable in the distribution of the burden of such expenses. Therefore, recommend that the following resolution be adopted.

A Resolution. "Seniors, 10 cents per member. Intermediates, 5 cents per member. Juniors 1 cent per member.

"I wish to extend my thanks to the officers who have so kindly and efficiently co-operated with me during the year especially the secretary, treasurer and Intermediate Superintendent.

"In closing may I suggest to the incoming officers that the time of the Intermediate and Junior rallies or the convention be so arranged that they may come on Saturday, thereby not causing the little folks to be away from home at least more than one night."

SPRING BROOK IS FULL OF NEWS

Doings of the Little Community in the Canning Factory Addition.

The bunch of horses that the gypsies at Spring Brook allow to forage for their feed are causing much trouble. Saturday a resident discovered several of the nags rolling in his newly set out garden and otherwise disrupting themselves on the premises. People in the vicinity wish that it could be arranged to have a nightwatchman in Spring Brook.

Boys in the vicinity of McKee boulevard and Eastern avenue have been causing some annoyance to occupants of passing vehicles.

One little fellow was nearly run over last Friday evening.

L. J. Cronin's cellar for his new house has been dug and the stone cutters are at work.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carst of James place Saturday.

John Cronin, Eastern avenue, has been ill several days.

Flower boxes filled with geraniums in the windows, vines creeping along the walls and bright flower beds contrasting with the green of the well kept lawn, make the Jackson school something for Spring Brook residents to be proud of.

What He Needed

A coal carrier in Yorkshire, England, was sent to deliver a ton of coal at a college. Meeting one of the professors in the grounds, the coalman asked where he could put the coal. The professor came out of the brown study in which he was immersed and replied:

"Coal? Ah, yes! You must traverse the quadrangle at right angles and pass under the cinquefoil arch at the exterior of the building. There an orifice in the edifice will at once become evident to your ocular perception. There you may evacuate your vehicle of its amorphous substance."

The man scratched his head. "That's all right master," he said, "but it's the coal hole ahm seekin'!" —Brooklyn Eagle.

PRIMARY BILL UP ONCE MORE

FINAL SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTED QUESTION EXPECTED SOON.

CAUCUSES ARE HELD TONIGHT

Legislature Could Adjourn on Wednesday if This Discussion Could Be Settled.

(Special to The Gazette.) Madison, Wis., May 18.—The last light of the present legislative session opens tomorrow in the assembly, with primary elections again the issue. There is a chance that this battle alone may tie up the legislature for the entire week. Notice has been given by both sides to the contest of the intention to have if necessary to get the members here, and it is evident from remarks of some of them after the session closed Friday that many will not come without it, one assemblyman going as far as to say that if they wanted him next week they would have to take a corkscrew to find him.

Will Not Return. Statements were freely made by others that they would not return unless they were compelled to, and while some of them will probably change their minds on second thought there is little doubt but that there will be a large number of absentees when the session opens tomorrow, and that a call of the house will be necessary if a full vote is to be had. All of which indicates that final adjournment will not be reached this week. To do so it will be necessary for the legislature to finish all its work by Wednesday, as the governor has three days in which to consider bills. And as there are several other matters to be considered besides the primary bill, prospects for final adjournment by next Saturday are exceedingly slim.

Ray's Resolution. The first question for consideration tomorrow, when the primary matter comes up, will be the resolution offered Friday by ex-Speaker Ray, that the assembly recede from its position and concur in the senate amendment, which provides for the submission to vote of the people of that portion of the bill which applies to members of the legislature, congressmen and United States senators, which means the election of the next legislature by the caucus and convention system, which is the real issue. Then comes the motion of Mr. Andrew, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections, that the conference committee on the primary bill be discharged, and that the assembly adhere to its refusal to concur in the senate amendment. While some talk is heard of a compromise, administration leaders are firm in the statement that there will be no back-down, and that the majority against receding will be nearly if not quite as large as that which voted for the original bill.

If Efforts Fail. If the effort to recede fails, as it is believed it will, the next conservative plan, it is said, is to offer a new bill which will include features of the compromise propositions made by the assembly members of the conference committee. The administration men agreed to such a bill more than a week ago, providing enough votes to pass it in the senate could be assured. The assurance was not forthcoming, however, and negotiations ended. Whether or not they would now accept such a bill coming from the conservatives remains to be seen. A leading feature of the present fight is to secure credit for passing a primary bill, or in the event of failure, to throw the blame on the other fellow. Is either the Ray resolution or the proposed new bill go through, the conservatives will claim the credit, and this is not pleasing to the administration men. While they recognize that a compromise might be wise as a matter of political policy, they insist that the party platform demands a complete primary bill, and that they cannot consistently stand for much less. Both sides will hold caucuses on the matter this evening, if enough members are back to decide on lines of taxation.

Legislative Work. The work of the legislature could be easily disposed of by Wednesday, outside of the primary fight. The assembly disposed of all of its bills Friday, and has to act only on those which come over from the senate. The latter has considerable business, but it could all be disposed of by Wednesday.

Administration Surprised. A surprise was given the administration men by the decisive vote against the new freight rate bill in the senate Friday. While there was little expectation of its passing the upper house, they did not expect that senators who had stood by the governor on other matters would vote against it, as two or three of them did.

Ad Valorem. After the long contest on the issue of taxing railroad bonds is over, being the feature of the ad valorem bill on which the two houses clashed, it develops that it all amounted to little but talk, competent authorities declaring that these bonds will not be reached under the law. The conservative senators secured quite an advantage of position, as showing a conciliatory spirit, in receding from its amendment exempting the bonds, but it is now an open secret that had the senate not receded, the assembly would have backed down. Its refusal to concur in the amendment.

MAY SEND THREE 'VARSITY CREWS

Four-Oared Shell Perhaps Also To Be in the Poughkeepsie Races.

Wisconsin may enter a four oared crew in the Poughkeepsie regatta June 26 in addition to the varsity and freshmen crews already entered. Coach O'Dea has written to Minneapolis for a paper shell once used by the Minnesota boat club for the use of the four. If the shell is in racing condition and can be purchased by the Wisconsin navy there is no doubt but that the four will be taken along. The Athletic Board voted the coach money for a four-oared shell earlier in the year, but at the time that the varsity eight-oared boat was ordered there was money in hand only for the larger shell.

Wants the Four. Coach O'Dea is especially anxious to take the four along this year, as he thinks that there could be selected from the second crew, as it is now composed, a strong four. This race is held before the freshmen contest on the day of the regatta, and is over a two mile course.

Freshmen Crew. The freshmen are sure of going to Poughkeepsie, if the money can be secured. The first and second eights are evenly matched, but there will be a shake-up before long and a good crew should be the result.

School Race. Commodore Werder has written, to the St. John's navy department, asking that they row with the varsity freshmen at Madison some date earlier than June 6. The cadets wanted the race to take place at Delaford this year, June 9, but as Coach O'Dea will be occupied with putting the finishing touches on the crews before they leave on the 11th, the freshmen cannot be taken away from Madison. Coach O'Dea is willing to have the cadets race either the first or second freshmen at Madison on an earlier date.

Changes in Crew. A number of changes have been made in the combination of the first freshman boat. Johnson was changed from 7 to stroke, Burling, who has been at No. 5, taking his place. Hetzel was moved up from 3 to 5, Kuchmstedt being brought over from No. 2 in the second boat to fill his seat. Kuns was brought from the second boat to No. 4. This leaves the order of the class boat as follows: Cortelyou, bow, Kennedy 2; Kuchmstedt, 3; Kun, 4; Hetzel, 5; Vandemeter, 6; Burling 7; Johnson stroke; Lucas, coxswain.

There will be a regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the First M. E. church, Tuesday afternoon at the parsonage, 102 S. Jackson street. A full attendance is desired.

Would Appear To Be Dead.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Relieved and Cured.

"I have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is all that one can wish it to be. I was troubled with heart disease for fifteen years. I have tried many different remedies but until I tried Dr. Miles' Heart Cure I could find no relief. I was subject to headaches and had tried your Pain Pills and they were so effective I thought your Heart Cure might help me. I would have attacks at times so severe that I would be stone blind for the time being. During these spells I would be to all appearances dead. I took the medicine strictly as directed and I can truthfully say that I am completely cured. I advise all that are troubled with heart disease to take Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure at once. I write this and give my name to my fellow sufferers."—S. E. Purdy, Atkinson, Nebraska.

"I first felt the effects of a weak heart in the fall of 1896. I saw an advertisement in the Sioux City paper in which a man stated his symptoms which seemed to me to indicate a trouble similar to mine. I had a soreness in the chest at times, and in my shoulder, an oppressive choking sensation in my throat and suffered from weak and hungry spells. I was truly frightened at my condition and procured six bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. Since taking my first bottle I have never been bothered by any of the old disagreeable symptoms and now am well and consider my cure permanent."—Lewis Anderson, Kuhn, S. D.

NEW YORK LANDMARK

OLD BUILDINGS RAPIDLY BEING DEMOLISHED.

Hall of Records the Last to Go—First City Hall a Primitive Structure—Erected by the Dutch Inhabitants in 1642—Its Many Vicissitudes.

(Special Correspondence.)

The demolition of the old Hall of Records in New York, used in the days of the Revolution as one of the British prisons, following so soon after the removal of other historical buildings, has excited a great deal of interest among descendants of early citizens, but not enough to secure their preservation in any form. Many have wondered why some parts of the old buildings could not have been utilized by the construction of the new buildings, if only that they might have been preserved as relics.

The first City Hall of New York was the "Stadt Huys," erected by the Dutch inhabitants in 1642, at the head of Coenties Slip, the waters of which extended as far as what is now Pearl street. It was a very primitive structure, but sufficed for the needs of the city until 1700, when a new City Hall was built at the head of Broad street, fronting on Wall street. The year before the Common Council had voted $23,000 (about $15,000) in addition to about $15,000 received from John Rodman, a merchant, for the old Stadt Huys, for the new hall, and it occupied the site of one of the stout bastions which were erected when the defensive wall, or wooden palisade (which gave Wall street its present name), was built across the island. The stone of this bastion was used in constructing the new building. The front of the building was embellished with the arms of the King and those of the Earl of Bellingham. These ornaments were defaced and destroyed immediately after the close of the Revolution by vote of the Common Council; and when the Declaration of Independence was read to the people in 1776 from the steps of the City Hall the painted coat of arms that hung on the wall of the main room was brought out and thrown into the bonfire made by the citizens to celebrate the event. During the Revolution the City Hall was occupied by the British troops, and they were accused of ruthlessly plundering the library and using many valuable books in making cartridges.

The City Hall then passed into the hands of Congress, and after extensive changes became known as the Federal Building. It was in the gallery of the Senate Chamber that Washington took the oath of office as President on April 30, 1789. The site is now marked by the Washington statue, which stands in front of the Sub-Treasury building.

Adjoining this is the magnificent marble stock exchange building just erected, the most palatial structure in the world dedicated to finance. Over $2,000,000 was spent on its construction.

Another building connected with the career of Washington stood on the site now occupied by what was known as the Field building when it was erected by Cyrus W. Field, and now the Washington building at Broadway and Battery place. It was a mansion owned by a British officer known as "Honorable Captain" Kennedy. The garden of this mansion extended to the bank of the North River, then on the line of Greenwich street. Long before the Revolution Kennedy succeeded to the estate of the Earl of Cassilis, when he returned to England, after transferring his New York property to a son. It was subsequently sold to Nathaniel Prime, and at the time of the Declaration of Independence was occupied by Gen. Washington as his headquarters. During the occupancy of the city by the British the mansion was used by the various commanding generals, and it was from its portals that Sir Guy Carleton started for Dobbs Ferry to confer with Gen. Washington on Nov. 23, 1783, when they arranged the details of the evacuation of New York and the embarkation of the British troops. After the war the Kennedy mansion was occupied by Mr. Sears, known as "King Sears," and his daughters were mentioned as "princesses." Later it became a girls' boarding school, and then a fashionable boarding house, in which Talleyrand, the French statesman, stopped at one time. It was here that Talleyrand, standing in front of a hot fire, had a pair of buckskin breeches destroyed by the intense heat and had his flesh scorched.

New York's First City Hall.

Until its demolition a few years ago the Kennedy mansion was occupied as a hotel, and it formed a prominent landmark in that part of the city.

JOKE WAS ON THE CASHIER

How Farmer Secured a Raise in His Interest Rate.

It is not often that an outsider gets ahead of a Pittsburg man of business, but occasionally they score against each other. The president of one of the largest trust companies a few weeks ago completed the purchase of some valuable coal lands by paying an old farmer who lives near the Smoky City several hundred thousand dollars. He sent for the cashier of his trust company.

"I am paying this man in cash, Mr. —," he said, "and it is a fine chance to secure a big deposit for the trust company. Make him a good interest offer."

The cashier sent for the man and made a strong talk for the deposit. "How much interest are you getting now?" he asked finally.

"I'm getting 3 per cent," said the farmer. "How much will you give?"

"Under the circumstances, we will give you 3 1/2 per cent," said the cashier, pushing out a deposit slip.

The farmer filled it out, took out his checkbook and wrote a check for a half million. The cashier looked at the check in amazement. "Why, it's on our own company!" he exclaimed.

"Of course, it is," smiled the farmer. "You've had my money all the time, but it seems that I have not been getting all the interest to which I am entitled. I am glad you sent for me."

A MATTER OF SOUND.

Pronunciation That Brought About Unfortunate Misunderstanding.

Jimson Weed was a newcomer in the city, and Chinese laundrymen were "yellow primroses" to him. But he knew that every Chinaman was called John.

So, when he had deposited a bundle of soiled collars and cuffs at the Mongolian laundry which flourished in the vicinity of his boarding house, he indulged a conversational impulse by remarking:

"Say, can I have them clothes by Chewsday, John? Your name's John, ain't it?"

"You lie," replied the celestial, with the customary placid smile.

The retort brought a blow from Jimson Weed. The blow brought some Chinese repartee, delivered with a flat iron. Then came more blows, more flat irons, more Chinamen, a terrific general engagement—and the police.

As Jimson Weed was ushered into the patrol wagon, together with a bunch of disordered pigstails, what was left of his eyes permitted him a glimpse of the inscription over his adversary's place of business.

Was Not Mutual.

At a dinner Chancellor Von Bulow gave before his recent departure for Italy Emperor William met Prof. Delitzsch for the first time since his majesty criticized the professor's lecture on the Babylonian origin of the Bible. The professor is hard of hearing and the emperor's part of the dialogue was consequently in a rather high voice. His majesty greeted him with: "Well, professor, we have broken a lance together since I saw you." "Only one lance, your majesty," responded the professor, referring to the fact that he had never replied to the emperor.

Common Sense Court Decree.

A curious will case has been decided in Paris. A rich man well on in years married a young woman and settled his fortune on her. Later he discovered that she had misappropriated herself with another man almost since the day of his marriage. The blow killed him. His relatives brought suit to have the settlement set aside on the ground that the widow had displayed the blackest ingratitude toward her late husband. The courts have admitted the validity of the argument and have set aside the settlement in favor of the relatives.

A Lesson for Athletes.

One of the greatest pugilists that America ever produced, John Dwyer, of Brooklyn, quit his regular occupation to enter the counting-room. He died within a year from tuberculosis. The explanation in this case was simple enough. The immense lungs which were necessarily an advantage in the prize ring fell into disuse in the counting-room. Disuse meant degeneration, and degeneration meant a lack of resistance, of which tuberculosis bacillus was not slow to take advantage.

THE CAUSE AND CURE
OF DISEASE EXPLAINED

THE ONE CAUSE

Nature originates and destroys. The destructive process begins with the fermentation and decay of blood corpuscles. The cause of this fermentation is from Bacteria or microbes in the system. The fermentation does not take place without air, heat and moisture—for the germs or microbes are living organisms, that multiply in myriads with great rapidity. These microbes when fully developed, colonize in great numbers and attack the various vital organs of the body by feeding on the tissues thus producing inflammation which is sickness. If there were no microbes there would be no fermentation, hence there would be no sickness; life would continue indefinitely; suffering brought about by ill-health would cease and the processes of nature would stagnate. To this law man is no exception, and in it is the secret cause of all disease. No sickness can come on without microbes in the blood. THE UNIVERSAL CAUSE OF DISEASE IS MICROBES WHICH PILLAGE AND DESTROY.

THE ONE CURE

As the cause of all diseases is conclusively proven by every authority to be fermentation in the blood, produced by germs and microbes, common sense dictates that if the microbes were destroyed the cause would be removed.

The only known principle powerful enough to destroy the microbe in the blood, yet harmless as water to the tissues, was discovered by the learned scientist and microscopist, Prof. Wm. Radam. Its peculiar character is that of a true antiseptic and germicide, and its fame is world-wide under the name of "Radam's Microbe Killer."

It has withstood the most critical scientific examinations and is endorsed by every eminent medical authority.

As all disease originates from the same source, microbes, Radam's Microbe Killer prevents and cures EVERY DISEASE by destroying Bacteria the organic life that causes fermentation and decay of blood corpuscles. Kills the germs, and nature, through rich, red blood, kills the disease.

THE UNIVERSAL CURE FOR DISEASE IS TO KILL THE MICROBES WHICH PRODUCE IT.

Enlightened Science Admits that all Sickness is Caused by

GERMS OR BACTERIA

Poisoning and Wasting the Blood, the Tissues and Vital Organs.

THE ONLY UNIVERSAL REMEDY, FOUNDED ON THE GERM THEORY OF DISEASE, AND FULLY PROVEN BY TWENTY YEARS OF SUCCESS, IS

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

Threatening with probable thunder showers tonight and Tuesday.

THE PRESIDENT AND CURRENCY REFORM

President Roosevelt's speech in San Francisco contains a positive statement that, in his judgment, the congress that is to assemble next fall should take up and dispose of the pressing questions relating to banking and currency. Moreover, he says that such action will be taken. The president does not state what action he will recommend, except so far as to say that there is need of provision for greater elasticity in our currency system. The president's secretary of the treasury Mr. Shaw however, is an advocate of credit currency, and the president's brief statement would indicate that he leans to the policy advocated by Secretary Shaw.

The importance of this can scarcely be overestimated. Here we have a definite and positive declaration that the administration is to press this question, and this is an assurance that financial legislation will be one of the first matters to be considered by the next congress. Some significance may possibly be attached to the language of the president's speech in which he referred to "the congress that is to assemble next fall." This might bear the construction that he intends to call an extra session of congress to meet in October, which is a fall month. The regular session assembles in December, which is a winter month. It is of the highest importance that something should be done along the line of financial reform and that it should be done quickly. The consideration of the question by an extra session of congress, meeting in October during the period of the regular fall stringency in money would be of inestimable benefit in hastening the action of the national legislature, and the influence upon the money situation would be most beneficial.

President Roosevelt has heretofore given comparatively little attention in his messages and speeches to questions of finance, leaving their consideration to the reports of the secretary of the treasury. The fact that he has taken up the subject of currency reform in the series of speeches which he is delivering during his western trip is, therefore, in the highest degree significant, and is the most hopeful sign that has yet appeared that something will be done. It is evident that the president has been deeply impressed with the need of such financial reform as shall put an end to the ever-recurring seasons of monetary stringency in this country which are due, chiefly to our antiquated sub-treasury system, our inelastic bank note circulation. Even considerations of political policy would be sufficient to move the administration to action along these lines, for it would be in the largest measure injurious to the prospects of the republican party in the presidential election of 1904 if the campaign should be complicated with a severe financial disturbance due to the inadequacy of our currency system. But, apart from this political consideration, the president and his secretary may well be moved by these higher motives of what is most essential for the prosperity of the whole country. Wall Street Journal.

THE STATE INSTITUTIONS

H. Grotopharst, of the State Board of Control writes a very sensible article to a Milwaukee paper about the injustice of the civil service bill, that recently passed the Assembly. This bill has to do with the service in state institutions. It provides for a board of civil service examiners who shall pass on the fitness of all applicants for service. It deprives the board and the superintendent of all institutions of authority, either to employ or discharge labor in any department, and makes of the service the same sort of a farce that the government perpetrates on its postmasters.

Mr. Grotopharst objects to the bill and his objections are well taken. While it may be desirable to eliminate politics from state institutions it has never been found practical in Wisconsin.

The superintendent of any institutions is more competent than any other authority to determine the character of teachers and employees and for many years his authority has not been questioned.

The Board of Control is a close corporation, responsible to no one but the governor. They should be in sympathy with his administration and it is very natural that they should select men for state positions who are also in accord. When these men are selected they are clothed with authority, and the record shows that they are not largely influenced by politics.

The state institutions are not suffering for civil service reform. The governor and his board should know more about the work than they do, and should not be satisfied with simply buying supplies at bargain prices.

A DECISIVE VOTE

By a vote of 20 to 10 the Senate killed the maximum freight rate bill. The large majority was a surprise to administration forces, and it is safe to say that the spell is broken. The political session of the legislature will soon close. It has been a remarkable session, and will be conspicuous in history, principally for what it did not accomplish.

The state has occasion to congratulate itself, for having a conservative majority in the senate. While the men representing the majority have been roundly denounced by administration organs, it is apparent to the minds of all unprejudiced people, that they were right. They have stood between the people and freak legislation and saved the state from the odium that attaches to Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa.

The sober second thought of many men who have been flogged by the governor will endorse the action of the senate. The have already discovered that it is better to be in sympathy with the business and industrial interests of the state, and to be chasing a phantom for recreation.

The outlook for the future is promising. The governor should profit by experience and get in line with his party. There is a limit to manufactured sentiment, and he has passed the limit. The next campaign will be noted for common sense and the state will come back to her moorings satisfied to let well enough alone.

The legislature will be criticised for allowing the expense amount of the coal commission, as presented. The agent of any other corporation who returned that sort of an expense account would be reprimanded severely to say the least.

It is all poppycock to hear the governor's organ talk about federal jobs for those honest men of the senate who have done their duty just as though they will not stay right in Wisconsin politics and be senators once more if they want to.

Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall. Had a rate bill he thought was tall. Humpty Dumpty had a great fall. Down went the bill, Humpty and all.

That little war cloud over in the Balkans seems to have become pretty near a western hurricane from the present outlook.

Now the Russian has turned on the poor Jew. Murder and rapine have been common, and at last the civilized world wakes up.

Once more is President Roosevelt lost in the wilds. California is this time the scene of his bores in the wood act.

Except from the Free Press, where does the governor get his newspaper support from? And they say newspapers only speak the general opinion of the people they live among.

Senator Whitehead is making the most enviable reputation at the present session of the legislature. He does the right thing at the right time, and while he suffers abuse from the organ he has the support of his home people.

Perhaps the legislature will adjourn to celebrate Decoration Day.

There are more howling, snapping dogs to the square inch in the down town district of Janesville than most cities have in their whole town corporate. Something ought to be done especially with the block from the Myers Hotel corner to the Hotel London. It is fight and snarl all day in this one block and the dogs seem to be on the increase.

Now poor, "I WILL" Chicago has a retail butchers strike to contend with. They haven't got their dirty linen clean yet, and now they go in to another throes of revolt.

Justice Arle's Court: In Justice Earle's court case of Henry Reader versus John Harrington is adjourned one week.

PRESS COMMENT

Chicago Inter Ocean: The United States is on friendly terms with Great Britain, Japan, and Russia, and especially with Russia, and for this reason, and some others, it could not be expected to take up a quarrel with which it has nothing in particular to do.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: Now that England has adopted a little Monroe doctrine of her own, no doubt her sympathy with our country's maintenance of the doctrine will increase.

Chicago Record-Herald: There seems to be a disposition on the part of the people of Nebraska to refuse Mr. Rockefeller's offer of money just because the price of oil was raised a cent a gallon immediately after the gentleman proposed to give $57,000 to their state university. Some people are so touchy about these little matters.

New York Tribune: There is an addition to the story of the race war in Joplin that will not come by telegraph. A former Atchison woman, who lives there writes to the Globe: "The recent attempt to drive the negroes out of Joplin was the worst thing I ever heard of. It left me without a girl, and with company in the house. Yesterday I had to do my own washing, and this morning my husband had to sweep out his outhouse. I do not approve of race wars; the kitchen work is hard, and I will have my ironing to do."

Milwaukee Sentinel: The essence of Dr. Lorenz's offending seems to be the highly unprofessional act of punching on certain other people's preserves.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: The Goehelites in Ky. still banker for Governor Taylor, because nothing would please them better than to send a governor defrauded of his seat to the penitentiary for life for being a republican.

St. Paul Pioneer Press: If new voters were everywhere thus welcomed, instructed and made to feel how noble a thing in reality is American citizenship and the amount of inconsiderate and penal voting would be vastly lessened.

Marquette Eagle: The United States will pull out of the fire no chessnuts for the European powers.

TOBACCO MEN TALK TOBACCO

PRESENT OUTLOOK FOR YEAR IS GOOD.

THE MARKET AT A STANDSTILL

Little Buying Is Being Done—The Plant Beds Are Filled with an Abundance of Plants.

In tobacco circles, industry is gradually tapering down. But a few buyers are still riding for 1902, and the old leaf transactions are few and far between. The Wisconsin Tobacco Reporter says that the Wisconsin tobacco markets are as barren as at any time in the year. Neither in new or old goods is there any evidence of activity. A little warehouse handling is yet to be completed, but the season is practically at an end. With warmer weather, the young plants are pushing along rapidly. The plant beds are filled with an abundance of healthy plants which gives promise of being in plenty of time for transplanting. On some of the plants which have been grown under canvas, the leaves are the size of one's finger nails.

A Local Inventor
One of the earliest patents on a tobacco planter has expired. It was taken out by W. Smith, of this city. This machine is mounted upon a transporting wheels and is provided with devices for opening the ground for plants, and with water carrying and delivering means to water the plants as they are set out. At the rear of the machine is a device mounted for covering and packing the dirt around the plants. The early machines had a box tank instead of a barrel. Mr. Smith's idea has been copied by all the later planters, though his machine at first was a crude affair and he reaped but little benefit through his patents.

Leaf Trade
Business in the leaf trade in Chicago is steadily improving. Wisconsin has recently been the demand. A sale of 612 cases of the 1901 crop was made by J. Friedman & Co. the other day. The Sumatra that is coming in, gives general satisfaction. A continual demand is noticed for Florida leaf. Reports received from Havana are to the effect that the Yuelta crop is good and plentiful, but a scarcity of perfects is likely. It is further stated that the independent movement is making strong head way in Cuba.

The Eastern Situation
This was moving week in New York and though quite a number of firms moved in the street, the moving of stock was rather backward. A lull seems to have spread over the market and only the Florida leaf seems to have been exempt from it. It appears that there is more demand for that type than can be gratified and orders are being taken for lots of the new crop, which is not marketable yet. The seed leaf market was actually dull during the past week, an only an average business was done in Sumatra and Havana. As the cigar industry is not falling behind, it can safely be expected that the market will soon return to its normal condition of activity.—Journal.

There is no doubt that the general activity among the cigar factories has materially increased within the last two weeks. There is, of course, an occasional complaint, and it is a fact that the business is not uniformly even; but speaking generally, it is steadily advancing. With rare exception the increase over last year is considerable.

JANESVILLE IN SECOND PLACE

TRAILS EVANSVILLE IN COUNTY
MEET HELD SATURDAY.

EVANSVILLE WINS ONCE MORE

Beloit Brings Up Rear with Small Total—Official Disqualified for Betting.

Evansville 59½; Janesville 40½; Beloit 22.

Janesville dropped another first place to Evansville in the county meet held in the latter city Saturday. Evansville has now held the Rock county prize cup for six consecutive years, winning it three times. The remaining years the other schools declined to enter a contest, so that Evansville's title to the cup is clear. Their laurels Saturday resulted entirely from their handiness with the weights and their leaping ability. On the oval the Bower City boys came in for theirs.

There was a warm little tilt when the accusation was made that one of the officials, an Evansville man, had placed some money on the result of the 220-yard hurdles and in order to guard his coin had disqualified Kent, who was counted a sure point winner for Janesville. The charge was not preferred, however, until after the race had been run. Fessenden, the official against whom the charge was made, was then protested and disqualified.

Myers Made Good
On the score board Myers of Janesville had them all beaten. Total of individual points was 111, counting the relay. No other contestant distanced that tally.

Satisfaction in the meet was general, except for the unpleasant incident which led to the disqualification of one of the judges. Janesville's men had not entered the meet with the expectancy of grabbing first honors, and they were well satisfied to make an even consistent account of themselves.

Each of the three contesting schools entered thirteen men. The gate receipts were thirty-six dollars.

Result of Events

CRUSADE AGAINST THE DICE SHAKERS

Edict of Police Issued Against Devotees of the Ivories—Big Gang Surprised.

War has been declared on the crap shooters of the city. Chief Hogan has determined that every form of gambling shall be driven out of Janesville. Yesterday he put to rout a bunch of nearly twenty men and boys, most of them about sixteen to eighteen years of age, who were shaking dice near the old St. Paul freight depot on St. Mary's avenue. As the chief pushed his way between two cars and came into sight the gang caught sight of him and did a magical disappearance specialty. They did not get away, however, before Mr. Hogan had focused his eyes on half a dozen of the ringleaders, whose names he will preserve for future reference.

Wanted—Choice old potatoes; highest prices paid. W. T. Vankirk, 12 River St., Janesville, Wis.

Wells as a Socialist.

One of the latest recruits to Socialism from the ranks of literary men is H. G. Wells, author of "The Time Machine," "Anticipations" and a dozen other ventures into the realms of pure fiction. He is moved to the step by science rather than sentiment. He has been nominated for membership in the Fabian society by George Bernard Shaw and Graham Wallis.

CRUSHER PLANT IS UP ON TAPIS

SUBJECT TO BE DISCUSSED AT SPECIAL MEETING.

HAVE BEEN INVESTIGATING

The Aldermen Are Now All Ready To Take Up the Much Talked About Problem.

One more re-bashing of the city crusher problem will be given at a special meeting of the common council. During the past week every alderman who did not feel familiar with conditions at the quarry which the city leases and which has been so fertile a source of suspicion and discontent has made a trip to the place in question. Most of them have frankly confessed that they never dreamed of what the actual conditions at the plant were. Tonight it will probably be decided whether it shall be reopened or put out of service.

Other business may come before the council. Both the poll tax and dog tax, both of which have been dead letters for years, are slated for resurrection at an early meeting, and tonight may be chosen as the date.

Start Sunday School: The La Prairie Sunday school held its first summer session yesterday at the La Grange hall. The following officers were elected: Superintendent, C. H. Howard; assistant, B. Walte; secretary and treasurer, Miss Carrie McCartney; organist, Mrs. C. H. Howard. There was a large attendance and everything points to a most successful year.
